

EcoLibrary - Videos

Title	Subject	Length	Author	Year	Description
3-2-1 Contact Extra: Down the Drain (2 copies)	Water	30:00	Children's Television Workshop	1993
3-2-1 Contact Extra: The Rotten Truth (3 copies)	Garbage	30:00	Children's Television Workshop	1993
3-2-1 Contact Extra: You Can't Grow Home Again	Rainforests	30:00	Children's Television Workshop	1993
The Adventures of Wayan and the 3 R's	Litter	15:00	Video Project	1995	What happens when Wayan finds plastic litter around his village on Bali?
All About Coal	Coal	12:30	American Electric Power - Fuel Supply	N/A	A children's version of coal mining and electricity
All Hands on Deck	Handwashing	9:00	Brevis Corporation	N/A	This video promotes handwashing in a uniquely serious and comic fashion in which Hand Solo, a real-life hand, talks it over with Xzzyxyz 1391, a loudmouth germ. The proper technique for handwashing is demonstrated.
The Busy, Busy Planet	Recycling, Plastic	11:00	American Plastics Council	1995	This video is for students, teachers, and anyone else interested in saving resources on our busy, busy planet. Provides simple ways to help the environment that won't slow you down.

Title	Subject	Length	Author	Year	Description
Come Walk With Me Walkin' Jim Stoltz	Environment	32:00	Earthtalk Studios, a product of Wild Wind Records	1995	Wilderness songster and long-distance hiker Jim Stoltz takes a hike with a group of young friends in the Montana Mountains. Celebrate the wilderness and its inhabitants in this musical journey.
Complete the Circle: How to Buy Recycled	Recycling	26:30	Environmental Defense Fun	1995	Actress Joanne Woodward leads the way towards closing the recycling loop and explains the importance of buying products made with post-consumer materials.
Do You Know Where Your Garbage Goes?	Garbage	12:00	Cornell University	N/A	This video is designed for grades 5-12 and shows the need to "divide and conquer", managing different portions of the waste stream in ways that protect the environment. Two animated characters help explore the more controversial issues of composting, incinerating and landfilling.
Down in the Dumps	Garbage	N/A	Films for the Humanities & Sciences, Inc.	N/A	N/A
Garbage Into Gold	Garbage	25:00	The Video Project	1995	Profiles a new breed of environmental innovators, from students to scientists.
Groundwork for a Better Environment	Composting	9:42	Hanifin Associates, Inc.	N/A	Features Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission's successful biosolids composting experience, which has proven that an environmentally safe, large-scale composting operation

Title	Subject	Length	Author	Year	Description
					can be installed and maintained in an urban area.
Habitats for Learning (2 copies)	N/A	N/A	Ohio Dept. of Natural Resources	N/A	This video takes a new look at school land labs in Ohio.
Here's My Question: Where Does My Garbage Go?	Garbage, Recycling	26:00	Southpaw Productions, Inc.	2000	This film takes viewers on two fascinating trips - to a landfill and to a recycling plant. Children lead the way and provide commentary while a furry cartoon creature supplies the facts. Catchy tunes add to this charming and comprehensive video.
How Did This Get Here?	Litter	9:22	RJR Nabisco	N/A	Keep America Beautiful
How Paper Recycling Works	Recycling	12:45	American Paper Institute	N/A	Learn how to recycle paper
Is It Safe to Drink?	Water	30:00	America Water Works Association	1993	The good news about drinking water
The Landfill Story	Garbage	17:24	Browning-Ferris Industries	1987	Learn all about landfills
Life After the Curb: Recycling Processes (2 copies)	Recycling	20:00	Cornell University	N/A	For grades 2-12 about the recycling process
Living Planet	Environment	39:00	SC Johnson & Son	1991	This video, which is accompanied by a teaching guide, exposes viewers to the beauty and wonder of the natural world.
Lollipop Dragon's Avoiding Litter	Litter	7:24	Society for Visual Education	1970	"Avoiding Litter," part of the "The Me I Can Be" Library (15 set video series), will get young viewers thinking about respect/responsibility for their community and keeping it litter-free.
The Lorax (2 copies)	Trees	30:00	Columbia Broadcasting System	1972	Witness how the Lorax tries to save the Truffula trees in Dr. Seuss's imaginative and rhythmic tale of resource depletion and the necessity for conservation. Can the Lorax teach the Once-ler a thing or two about trees, conservation, and pollution? An excellent addition to a lesson on habitats/trees.

Title	Subject	Length	Author	Year	Description
Major Attractions Starring Steel Cans	Recycling	8:30	Steel Recycling Partnership	1991	Contains background on and highlights of the Steel Recycling Partnership program to increase awareness of steel's packaging benefits.
Making Every Day Earth Day	Environment	8:00	Earth 911	N/A	Informative video about Earth's 911 national program, including 1-800-CLEANUP
The Man Who Planted Trees	Trees	30:00	Societe Radio-Canada / Canadian Broadcasting Company	1987	In this critically acclaimed film, the breathtaking animation of Frederic Back combines with the rich language of Jean Giono to create a film of extraordinary beauty and hope. This story is a triumphant testament to one man's indomitable spirit and great determination to plan and nurture a forest of thousands of oak trees.
The Mighty River	Water	24:00	Societe Radio-Canada / Canadian Broadcasting Company	1993	The breathtaking animation of Frederic Back pays tribute to the mighty St. Lawrence River. It meanders, surges, cascades and swirls along, nourishing life forms. Back portrays this majestic river as one of nature's most glorious habitats, a source of beauty and a bountiful provider of life now threatened by misuse.
Mister Rogers' Neighborhood The Environment and Recycling	Recycling	N/A	Family Communications	1990	This video, which includes a teaching guide,...
Ohio's Recycling Market Development Grant	Recycling	12:30	Ohio Department of Natural Resources - Division of Recycling and Litter Prevention	N/A	This short film introduces viewers to Ohio's recycling grants, which provide funding to stimulate recycling markets by helping companies process recycled materials and manufacture recycled-content products.
Oil and Water Don't Mix	Pollution, Oil	7:35	Merwin Productions	N/A	Actor John Ratzenberger narrates this informative video about the dangers of mixing oil and water and recycling alternatives for oil.
Our Fragile Earth: Recycling	Recycling	16:00	The Video Project	1991	This episode of Our Fragile Earth presents an overview of our wasteful habits and the need for recycling, then focuses primarily on how students can be part of the solution.

Title	Subject	Length	Author	Year	Description
Pay-As-You-Throw	Garbage	83:30	U.S. Environmental Protection Agency	1998	Dozens of community officials, solid waste experts, researchers, and residents answer questions and offer advice regarding Pay-As-You-Throw , a new trend in sustainable solid waste management.
Recycling...Using It Once Is Never Enough	Recycling	N/A	Ohio Department of Natural Resources	N/A	N/A
Recycling Means Business	Recycling	8:33	Ohio Department of Natural Resources	2002	This video provides an overview of Ohio's economic benefits from recycling. Recycling in Ohio is a $22.5 billion success story. The "Recycling in Ohio" fact sheet is a supplement to this video.
Recycling Within Reach	Recycling	12:55	N/A	N/A	N/A
Recycling: Waste into Wealth	Recycling	29:30	Bullfrog Films	N/A	N/A
Save the Earth: A How-To Video	Environment	60:00	International Video Publications, Inc. and Feisty Rogue Productions	1990	Join the Save the Earth Brigade in combing the globe exploring solutions to serious environmental problems. Find out how you can make a difference.
Science Court: Water Cycle	Water	N/A	Tom Snyder Productions	1997	Science Court is an exciting series that mixes animated courtroom drama and humor to teach fundamental science concepts. This episode is about the water cycle and its fundamental concepts.
Source Reduction NOW: How to Implement a Source Reduction Program	Source Reduction	11:50	Minnesota Office of Waste Management	1992	Demonstrates how to set up a source reduction program in a commercial, industrial or institutional facility. Based on over two years of field research, it shows steps that have proven effective for source reduction programs.
Sustainable Environments	Sustainability	N/A	The Video Project	N/S	This video provides a thorough and interesting exploration of sustainability. Learn how some of nature's loops and interdependencies work toward sustainability, and how we can follow similar patterns in the built environment.

Title	Subject	Length	Author	Year	Description
Time and Time Again (2 copies)	Recycling	15:14	John Marshall H.S. students, Steel Recycling Institute	1994	This video was produced as a result of a school-to-work initiative regarding recycling at John Marshall H.S. in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.
Tina's Journal	Recycling	17:00	The Video Project	1994	Energetic teenager Tina is captivated by how we can benefit from recycling. Her enthusiasm builds as she learns more about these issues, and is sure to have an affect on the viewer.
Waste	Garbage	28:50	Bullfrog Films	N/A	N/A
Waste Prevention Tools at Home	Recycling	13:00	Cornell Waste Management	N/A	This video provides training tools for business people and solid waste professionals.
Wastewater Treatment	Water	11:15	Water Environment Federation	N/A	N/A
Waterhog Haven	Water	10:00	American Water Works Association	1991	The importance of not wasting water
The Water Works: From the Source to the Tap	Water	9:30	American Water Works Association	2001	This video addresses the question: Where does our water come from? How does it get there?
Working Together for a Healthier Planet	Garbage	15:00	The Council for Solid Waste Solutions	1991	This short film explores the sources of the garbage problem, examines some of our preconceptions about solid waste -- particularly plastics -- and looks for ways to help preserve our fragile environment.
The World of Steel	Recycling	7:30	Steel Can Recycling Institute		